

Haller Brun is an Amsterdam-based graphic design studio run by Sonja Haller and Pascal Brun who cut their teeth in some of the most renowned studios in the Netherlands. Haller worked alongside Irma Boom and Brun at Thonik. In 2011 they went independent, opening their own studio where they now work in the fields of art, culture and commerce. Today their studio enjoys a reputation for refined book and identity design – several of their projects have won prestigious awards. Originally from Switzerland, the work of Haller Brun is characterised by a combination of the Swiss tradition for precision and typography with Dutch directness and playfulness. It is rooted in a deep understanding of its content and based on an appropriate and strong concept. Their visual solutions are clear and effective and always refined and carefully crafted.
